

First Presbyterian Church Alameda

First Presbyterian Church

Alameda

- Dedicated April 3, 1904, the First Presbyterian Church was designed by Henry H. Meyers and Clarence R. Ward under the supervision of A.J. Burgner.
- The building is one of the oldest remaining church structures in Alameda and represents an historically significant architectural style within the city.

Project Scope:

- Repair front entry steps and stained glass windows

Grant Amount: $10,000